

Self-Quizzing Support and Reminders

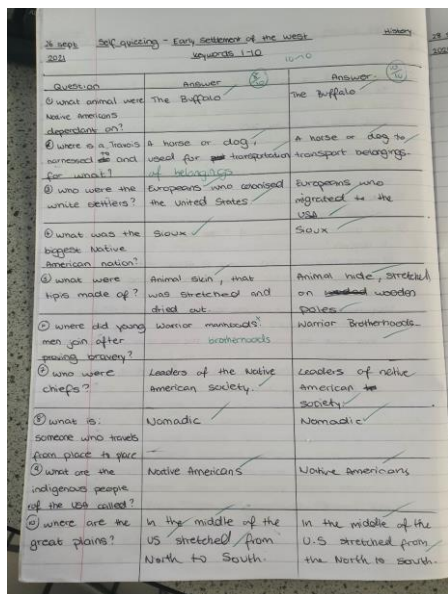

After completing a page of self-quizzing, mark the page with the 10 point scale.

If your page scores lower than 8, you need to continue to improve your work.

Misconceptions is the only section that may be missing, if you have no prior mistakes to re-visit.

Element	Number of points
Date	1
Title	1
Over 75% of the page used	2
Checking and correcting in green pen	3
Evidence of misconceptions being re-visited	2
Neat presentation	1

Good Examples of Self-Quizzing

Clear date and title.

Neatly organised and fills over 75% of the page.

Use of green pen to check and correct errors.

The final column allows misconceptions to be revisited.

Although pages do not have to look like this, the layout of this page will allow you to get 10/10 for all work.

Column 1= quiz questions. This could be altered to contain key terms or concepts that need recalling, instead of questions.

Column 2= First attempt with corrections

Column 3= Second attempt

Ways to Self-Quiz

Look Say Cover Write Check

- Select or create a series of questions and answers
- Look at the answers/ information
- Say the answers/ information
- Cover the answers/ information
- Write down what you just read and said
- Reveal the answers and mark

Brain Dump

- Select or create a section from your Absolute/ a topic within a subject
- Write that as the title and add any subheadings if testing a full Absolute
- Cover the information
- Write down everything you can remember.
- Check against the Absolute. Correct in green pen. Return to any mistakes/ misconceptions

Quiz Questions (Flash Cards)

- Select or create a series of questions and answers*
- Cover the answers
- Write answers in red books
- Reveal the answers and mark
- *For flashcards, write questions on one side and answers on the other.

Book Checks

Date	Signed and Comment	Date	Signed and Comment	Date	Signed and Comment