Prayer for Season of Creation

In this Season of Creation, we pray that you would call to us, as from the burning bush, with the sustaining fire of your Spirit. Breathe upon us. Open our ears and move our hearts. Turn us from our inward gaze. Teach us to contemplate your creation, and listen for the voice of each creature declaring your glory. For "faith comes from hearing." Give us hearts to listen for the good news of your promise to renew the face of the Earth. Enlighten us with the grace to follow the Way of Christ as we learn to walk lightly upon this holy ground. Fill us with the hope to quench the fires of injustice with the light of your healing love that sustains our common home. In the name of the One who came to proclaim good news to all creation, Jesus Christ. Amen.

If you bank online, you can round up whatever you give weekly into a monthly figure or make a one-off payment. You can set up Direct Debit or Standing Orders through online banking using the bank details below:

Amos, the prophet, denounces the life of extreme luxury of the people of Samaria. The pope is reminding us of the notion of common good, so that everybody can reach their own fulfilment.

Underlying the principle of common good is respect for the human person as such, endowed with basic and inalienable rights meant to his or her integral development. It has also to do with the overall welfare. It requires an overall welfare of society and the development of intermediate groups, applying the principal of subsidiarity. More important than any other, is the family group, as the basic cell of society. Finally, the common good calls for social peace, the stability and security provided by a given order which cannot be achieved without particular concern about distribution of justice; whenever this is violated, violence always ensues. Society as a whole, and the state in particular, are obliged to defend and promote the common good.
