

ALL SAINTS'

CATHOLIC VOLUNTARY ACADEMY

Parent Bulletin – w/b 22/01/24

Thought for the Week:

Scripture is the Word of God. It is a collection of sacred writings that tell the story of God's love for humanity. As we read scripture, we learn about God's plan for our lives, and we are inspired to live a life of faith. Scripture can also be a source of comfort and guidance in difficult times and speaks to us throughout our lives. Still the best-selling book of all time, the Bible contains something for everyone. Take a few extra moments this week to read from your Bible and see how you can be inspired by God's word.

Reminders/information:

All Saints' Way – The All Saints' Way theme this week continues to be Learn! In recent assemblies, students having been learning about the great things All Saints' Sixth Form has to offer and we hope this has inspired many of our students to make this their first choice after their GCSEs.

Handball tournament

Congratulations to all of the students who represented the school at the KS3 Handball Festival last week. All students were outstanding and a credit to the school.

Uniform reminders

A reminder that on PE days, students need to wear a black hoodie with the All Saints' Logo. We have spares in school to lend students if they come in the incorrect hoodie. Black leggings or tracksuit bottoms (not joggers) should be plain with only a small logo no bigger than 5 cm and trainers worn should be suitable for PE lessons and not fashion trainers.

Online safety

From an online safety survey, students at All Saints' said they follow influencers. Some influencers can be harmless and fun however, influencers can cause some risk depending on the nature of the content they share and promote. Some of the more popular influencers amongst our students include KSI, Mr Beast, Andrew Tate and Sidemen. It is always worth having access to your child's social media accounts to be able to explore the content they access from influencers.
