CELEBRATING OUR FAITH

Last Friday, our Year 9 students had their annual retreat day, fittingly held on National Youth Sunday.

The day began with walking to St Philip Neri Church for Mass with Fr Liam and Deacon John. Later in the day, students engaged deeply with the inspiring life of their house saint, St Oscar Romero, connecting with his example through the creation of Romero Crosses.

All of their time was centred on the essential theme of discerning God's plan for their individual lives, providing our students with a valuable time of reflection, prayer, and community building.
