

Comparisons

By looking at word etymology we can find out more about their precise meaning

From the Latin "comparare"

To make equal with by bringing together for a contest .

Comparison

Com - together

Par - equal

Connectives for Comparison

While

Although

Similarly

In contrast

Meanwhile

Comparing is a complex skill tested at key stage 3 and in more depth at Key stage 4 . Build comparing skills by being aware that there are 4 different possibilities .

Comparing two or more things helps us to evaluate.

- The two subjects are different
- The two subjects are the same
- The two subjects are partially connected
- There is no connection

Compare

The main character in this book with...

Compare

The beginning with the end ...
The opening line with the final line ...

Compare

Is there a difference...
What part is different...

Compare

Which is the most ...
Which is the least ...

Re package

Compare this situation /process with another and explain why you would connect the two.